Tell Us More About THE BOOK OF DANIEL

- The stories in the Book of Daniel take place between 605 and 535 BC with prophecies that extend far into the future.
- Daniel remained faithful to God while serving in both the Babylonian and the Persian Empires.
- Daniel is a man of great ethics. In Ezekiel 14:14, Daniel is commended with Noah and Job as a man who lived in righteousness.
- Three times in the Book of Daniel, Daniel is called "greatly beloved" by God. (9:23; 10:11, 19)
- Chapters 2-7 are written in Aramaic, the international language of the day, rather than Hebrew.
- Parts of the Book of Daniel are written in an "Apocalyptic" style. The Greek word "apokalupsis" means the unveiling of truth (which had been previously unknown or deliberately concealed by God.) This style is also used in portions of Ezekiel & Zechariah. The Book of Revelation is an example of apocalyptic literature in the New Testament.
- The historian Josephus records that Alexander the Great (332 BC) was overjoyed when he was shown the passages in the Book of Daniel that predicted his victory over the Persians.
- The Book of Daniel includes very detailed predictions that were precisely fulfilled during the time between the Old and New Testaments.
- Jesus quotes from the Book of Daniel to help His disciples understand the coming destruction of Jerusalem and the end of time. (Matthew 24, Mark 13)
- Jesus identifies Himself as the "Son of Man" (Matthew 26:64; Mark 14:62; Luke 22:69) from Daniel's vision (Daniel 7:13-14) who was "given authority, glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshiped Him. His Dominion is an everlasting Dominion that will not pass away, and His Kingdom is one that will never be destroyed."
