June 16 – Habakkuk June 23 – Zephaniah

Zephaniah is the great, great grandson of King Hezekiah and writes during the reign of King Josiah, probably around 635 BC before Josiah tore down the altars to Baal, burned the bones of false prophets, and broke the carved idols in 628 BC. Zephaniah uses the expression “The Day of the LORD” more than any other Old Testament writer. He describes “The Day of the LORD” as a day of wrath, trouble, distress, devastation, desolation, darkness, and gloominess. He urges the people to seek the LORD. Some of his prophecies were fulfilled as “The Day of the LORD” came for Judah and other nations. Some of his prophecies will be fulfilled in the last days. The last part of the book includes prophecies of restoration and hope. “The LORD your God is with you, He is mighty to save. He will take great delight in you, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing.” 3:17
